Teachers on the Estuary

A National Estuarine Research Reserve System Program

watersheds and estuaries

- A field and research-based course for teachers ~ July 28-30,2009 hosted by the Narragansett Bay Research Reserve
- To be held at URI's Coastal Institute in Narragansett, RI
- Day trip to Prudence Island, Rhode Island
- Half day follow up session on October 24, 2009

Learn from local scientists and experienced coastal educators.
Designed for high school teachers; others are welcome to apply.
Explore coastal habitats and practice field and classroom-based studies.
Try out lessons from Estuaries 101, a new web-based curriculum.

- Free workshop limited to 15 attendees
- Lodging (if needed) and food will be provided
- Teachers will be awarded a $200 stewardship mini-grant, $150 worth of equipment, and a $100 stipend upon completion
- 2 graduate credits available from Framingham College for $130

An application is required and is due by April 30, 2009.
More information and downloadable application are available:
www.nbnerr.org

Photo © Kim Botelho